DETAILED ACTION

REQUEST FOR CONTINUED EXAMINATION

The request filed on January 9, 2006 for a Request for Continued Examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114 based on parent Application No. 09/781,577 is acceptable and a RCE has been established. An action on the RCE follows.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-7 and 9-28 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-7, 9-16, 23-26 and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification as originally filed fails to disclose applying electromagnetic energy at a wavelength of "at least about 488 nm" or creating a tissue seal having "the tensile strength of the tissue".

Claims 26-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The limitation “amniotic membrane therapy” is not enabled by the disclosure. Searches of this phrase within the present specification or in the art fail to enable one skilled in the art to perform the method. It is unclear if the claimed “therapy” is meant to be synonymous with “amniotic membrane transplant”. If the Applicant were to argue or supply evidence that “amniotic membrane therapy” is well known to one in the art, the argument or evidence may be grounds for an obviousness rejection in later prosecution. Amending the claims and specification to read “amniotic membrane transplant” may result in a “new matter” type rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 17-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mulroy et al. (MPM-E21; 27th Annual Meeting...) as cited in Applicant's IDS. Mulroy et al. discloses a method of repairing corneal lesions without exogenous substrate comprising Rose Bengal and a laser at the same settings as the present invention and therefore would have an intraocular pressure limit greater than 100 mm Hg. Please note that the limitation "greater than 100 mm Hg" is not disclosed in the provisional parent application and therefore the priority date of these claims is that of the present application.
